Re: United States v. Burt Kozloff
07 Cr. 573 (CLB)

Dear Judge Briant:

I am the attorney for Burt Kozloff, the defendant in the above-referenced case. Mr. Kozloff is currently scheduled to be sentenced on October 1, 2007 at 9:00 a.m. With the Government's consent, I respectfully request that Mr. Kozloff's sentencing be adjourned for about three months, to January 2008.

Pursuant to a plea agreement with the Government, Mr. Kozloff recently pleaded guilty to a one-count information charging him with tax evasion. In the plea agreement, Mr. Kozloff agreed to use his best efforts to pay the taxes and applicable penalties that he owes to the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") prior to the date of his sentencing. A three-month adjournment of his sentencing will greatly assist Mr. Kozloff with regard to his commitment to pay the taxes and penalties that he owes to the IRS. For this reason, I respectfully request that Mr. Kozloff's sentencing be adjourned to January 2008. Thank you.

Respectfully,

Richard E. Signorelli
